Psalm 27:13-14 (AMP)
[What, what would have become of me] had I not believed that I would see the Lord’s goodness in the land of the living! Wait and hope for & expect the Lord; be brave and of good courage and let your heart be stout and enduring. Yes, wait for & hope for & expect the Lord.

Four Universal Voices

2 Corinthians 11:2-3

1. We listen to our heart; our emotions, how we feel.

Proverbs 4:23 Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.

2. We listen to our thoughts.

Hebrew word for meditation is haga: ____________________________

2 Corinthians 10:5 (Message) We use our powerful God-tools for smashing warped philosophies, tearing down barriers erected against the truth of God, fitting every loose thought and emotion and impulse into the structure of life shaped by Christ. Our tools are ready at hand for clearing the ground of every obstruction and building lives of obedience into maturity.

3. We listen to the voice of others.

Psalm 18:8 It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust humans.

4. We listen to the voice of our culture.

Romans 12:2 Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is – His good, pleasing, and perfect will.

Assignment: Set aside time every day, for at least one week, just to listen to God.

1. Ask God if there is something he wants to say to or share with you.
2. Ask God a specific question about something you need to do or know.

Write down what you hear in your head. If it doesn’t contradict the Word of God (Bible), then believe it!
