Heart-to-Heart

When God Requires You to Have Extraordinary Faith; a Lesson from Moses’ Mom

Week 2 | February 02, 2017

- Exodus is the ______ book in the Old Testament
- In Hebrew, exodus literally means: ______________________
- Exodus comes after __________________ which is “the book of beginnings”
- The author of Exodus is __________________
- Moses’ parents were ________________________________
- The key theme of Exodus: _________________________
- Exodus records the events of the Israelites deliverance from slavery in _________ and their journey to ________________
- The geographical name for the “Promise Land” is ______________
- The 40 year journey in the wilderness should have only taken just _______ days on foot.
- The Israelites were often referred to as ___________________ in the Old Testament and as _________________ in the New Testament.
- Egypt represents ____________________________
- Canaan represents ____________________________

“God let the Israelites wander in the wilderness for 40 years to get Egypt out of their system.” – Pastor Dan

“For we walk by faith, not by sight [living our lives in a manner consistent with our confident belief in God’s promises].” 2 Corinthians 5:7 (AMP)

Exodus 1:15-22; 2:1-10

“Observe the beauty of God’s province; just at the time when Pharaoh’s cruelty rose to a new height the deliverer, Moses was born ...” – Matthew Henry, Bible Commentator “Moses’ parents had faith too. When they saw that God had given them an unusual child, they trusted that God would save him from the death the king commanded, and they hid him for three months and were not afraid.” Hebrews 11:23 (TLB)

Mirror Moment: Our greatest fear can become our greatest faith which can lead to our greatest assignment.

What was Jochebed’s assignment?

God the Deliverer wanted to represent Himself as a deliverer in and through Moses!

Biblical FAITH is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. (Hebrews 11:1 KJV)
Evidence of things not seen: ____________________________________________

We can endure much when we live by faith in His promises. When we regularly read, declare, pray and meditate on God’s promises:

• It will keep our eyes, attention and focus on the ____________________ that God has for us and those we love.
• It will infuse __________________ into our spirit no matter what our circumstances are or what our future looks like.
• It keeps us living/walking by _____________________ instead of sight.

“For no matter how many promises God has made, they are ‘Yes’ in Christ. And so through him the ‘Amen’ is spoken by us to the glory of God.” 2 Corinthians 1:20

What are you facing that looks impossible?

“God is never silent out of punishment. His name is The Word so He always has something to say. He’s only silent to help us discover what He’s already said that we won’t go back and listen to if He keeps talking.” – Bill Johnson, “Living By Promises”
Further Study:

Learning to live/walk by faith, and moving your heart from bondage to rest can happen as you replace the bondage with God’s promises. Use the chart on the next page to help you by doing the following --

1. Column One: list everything that has come into your pit with you; anything holding you back, an area of personal defeat, a character flaw, specific worries, negative emotions like fear, anger, doubt, self-pity, etc.

2. Column Two: write down the exact opposite of each issue listed in the first column. For example: if you have “fear” in column one, write “love” in Column two. Column two will become a list of all God’s purposes for you in Christ.

3. Column Three: attach a promise or a blessing from Scripture that relates; use your concordance to look up a main word listed in Column 2. For example: 1 John 4:18 (perfect love casts out fear).

4. With a dark Sharpie, cross off everything you wrote in Column one and begin to focus on the list in Column two. Everything your person list of God’s Promises carries a "yes and amen" in your Deliverer, Jesus.

5. Tell your heart to go to “your” Scriptures for rest when you are feeling tempted, anxious, stuck again in worry, fear, doubt, etc. Meditate, and consider memorizing those verses.

“For no matter how many promises God has made, they are “Yes” in Christ. And so through him the “Amen” is spoken by us to the glory of God.” 2 Corinthians 1:20
