Fear and other Hindrances to Healthy Relationships: Managing Your Emotions
Genesis 12:10–13

Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while because the famine was severe. As he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, "I know what a beautiful woman you are. When the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' Then they will kill me but will let you live. Say you are my sister, so that I will be treated well for your sake and my life will be spared because of you."
ROOT of fear: Believing the lie that what God promised won’t come to pass.
“What happened to mankind emotionally as a result of the fall? For one thing, we became fearful and anxious. One of the first emotions expressed by fallen humanity was fear. Today, fear is a bottom-line emotion in our relationships and activities. A denominational executive, who spoke in our chapel service about two years ago, said, ‘As I talk with our pastors, I realize that the greatest motivation in their lives is fear of failure.’ FEAR is a result of the fall. If fear is controlling your life, then faith is not.”

In this way, love is made complete among us so that we will have confidence on the day of judgment, because in this world we are like him. There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love.
