Romans 9:14-21

14 What then shall we say? Is God unjust? Not at all! 15 For he says to Moses, “I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.” 16 It does not, therefore, depend on human desire or effort, but on God’s mercy. 17 For Scripture says to Pharaoh: “I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display my power in you and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.” 18 Therefore God has mercy on whom he wants to have mercy, and he hardens whom he wants to harden. 19 One of you will say to me: “Then why does God still blame us? For who is able to resist his will?” 20 But who are you, a human being, to talk back to God? “Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it, ‘Why did you make me like this?’” 21 Does not the potter have the right to make out of the same lump of clay some pottery for special purposes and some for common use?
Further Study:

2. Read Exodus 9-12; circle or list every time you read about Pharaoh’s hard heart.

3. Make a list of what you need for your God assignment; peace, comfort, love, help, wisdom, etc. Now write “I AM” in front of each one and begin to pray and declare those things statements believing that God will be those things to you.

4. Re-read Exodus 3 and then read the following out loud. Journal about what the Lord is saying to you about your assignment, difficult or not.

   It was an ordinary day when Moses saw a bush burst into flames. He must have wondered why it hadn’t burned up. And then suddenly he was having a conversation with a shrub and hears a voice say, “Dude take your shoes off on this holy ground.” God calls Moses to be a deliverer and immediately all of his negativity rises to the surface of his heart and mind.

   When God calls you or I the same thing happens; all of our negativity comes to the surface. A God assignment is a magnet for all the negativity lodged within us to come out.

   But the Lord is confident in Himself. He says, "I AM God and I can do anything. If I needed to be confident in a man or a woman I wouldn’t have chosen you. I like people with issues, their low self-esteem doesn’t faze me. I want to change them to become confident and secure to live out their assignment."

   God chooses people who have issues. People that have things in their life that they think disqualify them; things that other people think disqualify them. But when it all comes under grace, everything changes.

   God chose you because of who He is. And He is going to make you like Him through this assignment. He calls you knowing He will have to deal with all the negative things on your list that stop you from rising up and becoming the person that He sees doing what He’s asked you to do.

   He absolutely adores you and He just won’t consider being separated from you. In fact, He’s the One who said that nothing can separate you from His love. Everything He is doing is to make you like the Son so He can receive glory. It’s about Him turning weak people into brave and faithful people who come to love the journey, and trust Him to do what He asks them to. He wants to change your story and put you on a different path. He wants to get into your head and your heart and change the things that empower you to become like Him in the process.

God doesn’t want puppets or robots. He wants real people who become like Him and whose personality lines up with what’s going on in heaven. There is nothing ordinary about you. In fact, you can go above and beyond all the expectations of the people around you. And He says to you, “I AM God and I can do anything. If I needed to be confident in a man or woman I wouldn’t have chosen you. But I did! I chose you! As you are and as you’ll be!! You can trust Me for I AM is with you every step of the way.”
